ABOUT ME

I am Web and Mobile Developer. Highly motivated in learning and adapting new technologies. Currently, .NET Software Developer, working on various of ASP.Net MVC and ASP.Net Core MVC web applications and REST Services in .NET Core. Microsoft Certified for developing and Architecting ASP.Net MVC Applications since December 2017. Huge interest in C#, ASP.Net Web development and Azure Cloud Architecting as well as in Mobile Development.

EDUCATION

BS in Computer Engineering | University of Business Studies

10/2014 – 06/2017

During this period, as a School Project, I have developed Internal Web Application for one of the Bosnia's leading telecommunication companies (Mtel) that helps them to track and organize internal documentation (Demo is available online).

EXPERIENCE

.NET Software Developer | deepscreen GmbH

05/2018 – CURRENT

We are developing and maintain big CRM written in .NET Framework. Clients are mostly from Switzerland so main project languages are German and English. Client Side is written in HTML5 with jQuery and now we are working on Drag and Drop editor for their CMS in Angular 6, WEB API 2, and ASP.NET MVC

Lead iOS Developer | Axelyos doo

07/2017 – 05-2018

Started internship in August 2017, working on developing iOS Apps in SWIFT. After upgrading their main App on SWIFT 4, and doing some performance and stability improvements, building two more Apps by myself, CEO decided to stop internship and offer me a real contract in December as Lead iOS Developer working on various of iPhone apps all of them for International marketplace (UK, USA, AUS).

Web Developer | Sport77 LTD

03/2014 – 2017

During this period, I have developed several websites in PHP, HTML5, and WordPress. Also, I built my first iOS App: Lose Fat with Yoga that is now in upgrading progress and in few days second version will be on App Store that consumes REST Services built by myself in PHP.
